

William N. Dust
Member, Board of Directors
Canadian Orthopaedic Foundation

William N. Dust, MD, FRCSC

Bill Dust is an orthopedic surgeon and a professor of surgery in Saskatoon at the University of Saskatchewan.

He has held various positions including residency training program director, Director of Trauma, Division Head of Orthopedic Surgery, and Department Head of Surgery. His subspecialty interests are in revision total joint arthroplasty and trauma. Other interests include resident education and ethics. He is currently an Associate Editor for Orthopedic Trauma for the Canadian Journal of Surgery.