

James Hall
Member, Board of Directors
Canadian Orthopaedic Foundation

Jim Hall is General Manager, Canada at Aralez Pharmaceuticals Inc., a global specialty pharmaceutical company focused on delivering meaningful products to improve patients' lives while focusing on creating shareholder value by acquiring, developing and commercializing products primarily in cardiovascular, pain and other specialty areas.

Jim achieved a bachelor of engineering science from The University of Western Ontario and a master's degree in business administration from McMaster University, building his over 20-year career in the health sciences sector. Jim held various senior level roles at Hoffmann La Roche, AstraZeneca, and Searle/Pharmacia, leading various product portfolios, including those for bone and joint disorders. During this time Jim has successfully led business unit reorganization, established pre launch strategies and tactics, grown business unit market share, and established and implemented customer value vision. He is a strategic people and business leader, having established and reinforced organizational mission and direction, revitalized and refocused new business development, and established corporate institutional strategic plan.

Jim is a past member of the Rx&D stakeholder committee, and is recognized for facilitating dynamic relationships that reach across sectors for a comprehensive approach to building value for patients.
