

Whitney Hammond
Member, Board of Directors
Canadian Orthopaedic Foundation

Whitney Hammond

Whitney Hammond, owner of Sovereign Wealth Management, has been in personal practice for over 23 years. Whitney is a recognized leader in the Canadian financial planning field and a frequent speaker at events focusing on estate planning.

With exceptional knowledge in wealth accumulation and preservation, Whitney coaches clients to build solid financial plans which include tax and estate plans, testamentary trusts, tax sheltered growth plans and, for business owners, comprehensive succession plans and exit strategies. Her expertise in wealth management, and focus on delivering effective programs has allowed her to build trusting, inter-generational relationships with her clients.