Tim Miron is a Partner at BLR, LLP Chartered Accountants in Burlington, ON. Tim provides accounting, assurance and tax services to family owned businesses, focusing on professional corporations and technology companies. He became a partner in 2013 working out of BLR LLP's Burlington office. He loves to help family owned businesses, with succession planning, successor training and wealth preservation.

Tim has been an active volunteer with the United Way since moving to Burlington in 2005 and has previously been treasurer of Burlington's Sound of Music Festival. He is an avid but awful golfer. Tim frequently presents on a wide range of accounting and tax topics or just about any other subject that is likely to put you to sleep.

Tim graduated from Brock University in 2004 and obtained his CA designation in 2005. Prior to his time at BLR LLP Tim worked at a regional accounting firm where he started as a co-op student in 2001. Tim lives just a short drive from the Burlington office with his wife, Holly and their 3 children.
